The Pop Stars of the Japanese song perform in a colourful festival in the French capital.

After the Marseille festivities, Japan Expo is far from over.

Each edition of the festival is a unique opportunity for Japanese musicians to finally be able to play their songs with a French audience.

No kind is an exception to the rule: J-pop, RnB, idols, visitors are caught in an explosive atmosphere and ask for more.

Good news. We are offering you a new meeting, where Japanese artists perform in the French room. 4 groups leave from Japan Expo Marseille for reunions in the heart of the Parisian capital at the J-Music Festival in Paris Vol. 2 on 24 February.

The party will start at 6.30 p.m. in La Bellevilloise (Paris – google maps)

A J-pop programme (on the border of K-pop) which, after Japan Expo Marseille, prolongs the country's stay of the rising sun in the heart of winter. The event is entirely dedicated to offering a line-up completely from Japan.

On the bill (and in order): Kang Minsu, All In, UK and Banzai Japan.

The ticket office will be open from 10 a.m. . Enjoy an exceptional discount of 20% from 15 to 22 January.

For the purchase of a VIP place get 4 dedicated ex-libris, a t-shirt and a high-five with the artists. The VIP ticket also includes an early entry.

You will also be able to pass an exclusive photo opportunity subject to the purchase of a photo ticket on the spot (limited quantities).

KANG MINSU

KANG MINSU made its big debut in 2014 as a member of the Japanese-Kore BEE SHUFFLE joint group, which won an idol search hearing program co-produced by a Japanese and Korean television channel, and actively performed, mainly in Japan. In 2017, the band went hiatus, which marked the beginning for KANG MINSU of its many solo careers as a theatre actor, musical and drama, model and versatile actor.

ALL IN

ALL IN is a Japanese band that made its stage debut in December 2022, with their first live one-man that took place at Shibuya O-WEST, the largest in the history of ALL IN, with a record attendance of over 300 people. In September 2023, 3 new members were added to the band, and a second one-man live, the first of the new team, was also full.

UK

UK is a Korean singer who started his business in Japan in the band APEACE in 2010. As a member of the LAPIS5 subunit, he gave daily concerts between 2011 and 2014 at K THEATER TOKYO, a concert hall dedicated to the K-pop of the Yebisu Garden Place. From 2015 to 2021, he expanded his activities beyond concerts and participated in musicals and variety shows.

Banzai JAPAN

Formed in 2014, this J-Pop band, composed of no less than 13 idols, aspires to represent the 47 prefectures of Japan in their colourful performances. Each of the members highlights and in its entirety the charm of their distinctive region. Authentic musical showcase of Japanese culture, determined to be worthy of their motto: "The sun is about to rise on the world."
